Leadership Seminar Information

Author Of

Who: David Lantz was the State Director of the Indiana Christian Coalition from 1992 to 1995, and has served as a political consultant to several political campaigns for statewide office. Mr. Lantz is an Adjunct Professor of Business Management and Economics for the University of Phoenix and Indiana Wesleyan University, and conducts leadership seminars for the American Family Association of Indiana.

The Honorable Mike Pence, Governor, Indiana:

“Like so many ordinary people called to do extraordinary things, I observed David Lantz emerge from the grassroots to lead the Indiana Christian Coalition during my talk radio days in Indianapolis. His book serves as a road map for so many Americans who today are answering the call to rise up to become the “Gray Champions” of their local communities.”

Pastor Ed Fritz, First United Methodist Church, Goshen, IN:

“It has been my pleasure to work with David Lantz. In his book and seminar, Think like Jesus, lead like Moses, David clearly communicates positive leadership skills that allows those who are in the process of discipleship to best understand Godly techniques for effective ministry. You will be inspired and refreshed as you take this study with David.”

Rev. Mark Powell, Interim Pastor, Faith Lutheran Church, Cincinnati, OH:

“When I was appointed interim pastor of Faith Lutheran Church in Cincinnati, I knew I wanted to offer the congregational council a Saturday leadership training workshop. We not only decided to offer our own leaders David’s presentation “Lead Like Moses” but we marketed a Friday evening event to the community. In the Saturday session, David offered breakout sessions for small groups so there was a great deal of discussion amongst council members. From David’s presentation, FLC’s leadership team is focusing on new outreach ministries for the first time in years. Thank you David!”
