The Honorable Mike Pence, Vice President, United States of America:

“Like so many ordinary people called to do extraordinary things, I observed David Lantz emerge from the grassroots to lead the Indiana Christian Coalition during my talk radio days in Indianapolis. His book serves as a road map for so many Americans who today are answering the call to rise up to become the “Gray Champions” of their local communities.”

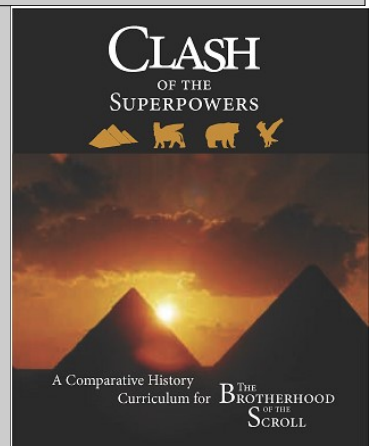

Pastor Ed Fritz, Goshen 1st United Methodist Church:

“It has been my pleasure to work with David Lantz. In his book and seminar, Think like Jesus, lead like Moses, David clearly communicates positive leadership skills that allows those who are in the process of discipleship to best understand Godly techniques for effective ministry. You will be inspired and refreshed as you take this study with David.”

Online Courses, Such as Clash of the Superpowers:

The Brotherhood of the Scroll: Clash of the Superpowers uses the parallels in the geopolitics of 600 B.C. to events happening in today's world to engage the student in a conversation about geography, history, politics and religion.

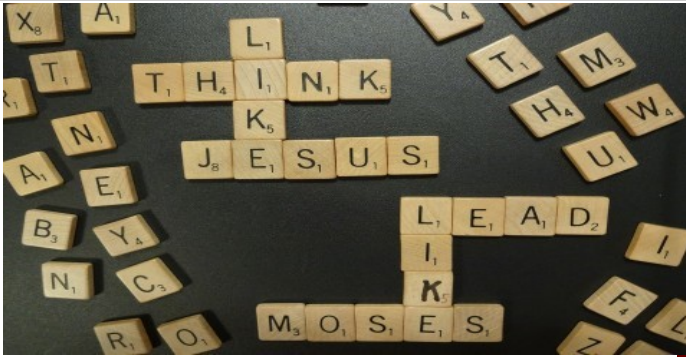

“I am extremely impressed with this curriculum and if your high school student is looking for a meaty, not run of the mill, type of Bible curriculum then I highly recommend this. I think adult Bible study groups would also enjoy this. I always like the Old Testament studies the best!” Brotherhood of the Scroll/Clash of the Superpowers Product Review by Christine Hindle, The Old School-house® Magazine, LLC, August, 2015.
